Cansu Aras was intensely interested in basketball, volleyball and athletics professionally during her primary and high school years. After completing her undergraduate education in Ankara, she returned to Izmir and started working at the Wall Street English Language Course. She is fluent in English and French. She lived in Kazakhstan for 5 years with her husband, whom she married in 2017. Her interest in the veterinary profession, which was her childhood dream, increased even more with her cat Luna, whom she adopted in Kazakhstan. After returning to Turkey, she settled in Fethiye and adopted her dog Yavuz there. With the support and energy of Luna and Yavuz, she started university for the second time after the age of 30 to become a Veterinary Technician. After jogging on the beach every morning, she practices her favorite job at Sherlock Veterinary Clinic.
